FREE FOOD

What can we say. "Where there are two or three Methodists gathered together, there will be good food." It's a picnic. Need we say more? And it's free! You can't beat that! Lunch will be served at twelve thirty. Don't be late!

Most gatherings at Smith are topped off by some good music. This day will be no exception.

New to us this year is a young artist from Shepherdstown WV (originally from Sterling), Jayme Salviati. We know you'll love her and her music.

GOOD MUSIC

TENTATIVE SCHEDULE: SAT., SEPT. 11

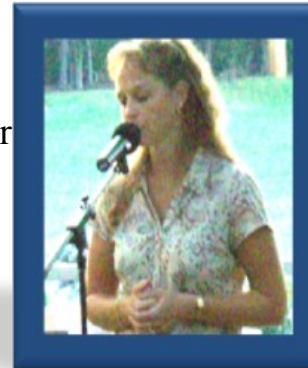

NOON—GATHER
12:30 PM—FOOD & FELLOWSHIP
1:30 PM—PIE BAKING CONTEST
2 PM—WORSHIP MUSIC
2:30 PM—CONCERT & HYMN SING

Also returning is someone who has become a favorite here at Smith Chapel.

We're excited to have Chrissie Dalton back again this year.

In addition to doing a set of songs for us, Chrissie and her mother, Linda Sullivan, will be leading a commemoration of 9-11 through an old fashioned patriotic hymn sing.

Both Linda and Chrissie come to us from the Winchester area.

GREAT CAUSE

To apply for a Missionship, ask for a brochure. If you'd rather, go to our website, www.SmithChapelUMC.com. Navigate to the Missionship page. Fill in the form and click Submit.

A couple of years ago we instituted the Sullivan Mission Fund which is used to fund lay mission trips. We call these fundings "Missionships."

We award Missionships to any lay people embarking on short-term, Christian mission trips. The Sullivan Fund is solely for this purpose, and is replenished each year by the free will offering at this event.

We hope you'll join us to support this worthy endeavor with your presence and financial gifts.

Immediately following the pie baking contest, we will enjoy that pie along with some ice cream. Ahhh...pie a-la-mode and music! You can't beat that combo. DON'T MISS IT!!!

We're adding a new (but time tested) addition to the picnic this year. We'd like to invite you to enter our Pie Baking Contest. You don't have to register. Just bring it with you to the picnic and enter it. All entries should be at the chapel grounds by 1 PM.
